COUNTERINTUITIVE APPROACHES TO TREATMENT

Innovative treatment methods to address complex psychological, social, and physiological symptoms experienced by clients seeking assistance from mental health and substance abuse professionals.

Steve Frankel, Ph.D., JD

Sally Wood, Ph.D.

Through a set of anecdotes of patient presentations, vignettes, role-play experiences, and demonstrations of helpful techniques, this seminar seeks to present ways of thinking about symptom presentations that may lead to counterintuitive, but effective intervention strategies.

Kathryn Jett, Director of the CA Department of Alcohol & Drug Programs & Steve Mayberg, Ph.D., Director of the CA Department of Mental Health are invited to introduce the program.
